Report

The Department of Kannada and Culture, Bangalore Urban District and Ambedkar Study Centre, St. Francis de Sales College, Electronic City, Bangalore, conducted a session on 'The Ambedkar Reading and Reward Distribution Program' on 16/9/2021. It was held in the college auditorium of St. Francis de Sales College, Electronic City, Bangalore and the event was presided by our Principal Rev. Dr. Roy. The guest speaker for the day was R M N Ramesh and he addressed the audience on Ambedkar thoughts relating them to the present scenario. BR Ambedkar's education is an ideal setting for today's student body. He said that he would become a great leader of the country by giving a lot of attention to the readiness of his heart when faced with any difficult task. The establishment of human dignity, self-respect and self-reliance were the essence of Ambedkar's struggle. He had undertaken the task of giving life and soul to the newly restored men of Hindu society. Ambedkar said that the mission of the man was to rely on self-power and create a self-respecting human spirit. Their contribution is also unique because they have sought to provide human rights through justice through the Constitution. There is no other in the world to compare with Ambedkar - the way Ambedkar faced his dark childhood days of schooling, extraordinary knowledge, nomadic life - uneducated - excessive community, heightened impatience, indifference, negative response, etc and the way he overcame all his hurdles is very inspiring. The talk was also on how to provide meaningful healthy opportunities.
