

Positive Outcome:

Objective of the event was help the students the importance of effective communication and developing the right skills to lead a successful life. The speaker took all efforts to explain this through a wide variety of activities and this was an eventful and refreshing experience for the postgraduate students of the department.

Photo Gallery

