About the seminar ...

The current economic and regulatory environment in India is on the threshold of a major recast. Constant efforts are being made to amend and adapt the laws to suit the demands of modern times. The pivotal focus of all major reforms is directed towards simplification of the legal system to ensure that it is easy to understand, implement and enables business. The country has passed through a long span since the first Companies Act was enacted. A need has been felt to update and make it globally compliant and more meaning full in the context of investor protection and customer interest.
