Report

The Postgraduate centre along with the student counsel organized the Ethnic Day for the first time under the title "Samanvaya-Reconciling culture" on July 30, 2022. It was conducted to celebrate different cultures and traditions and to bring in the unity. Hence, the theme was "Bring cultures together." Students and faculty celebrated this day by arriving in their ethnic wear in vibrant colours.

A promo video was made and displayed few days before the event. This was done by taking in the words by the Principal, Vice principal and Administrator about what ethnic day means for them. The event began at the Auditorium with a formal and warm welcome to all the faculty and students, followed by prayer song. There were fun games organized by the students like arranging numbers, Blast the balloon, Musical chair and Dumb Charades. The registration for these events were done prior to the event. From each department one team was mandatory to participate in the fun games and one team for cultural performance. As mentioned, students registered from all the departments and actively participated. Students who won in these fun events received chocolates. On spot participation was also requested and many students took part in these fun games.

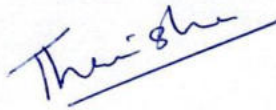

The focal point of this day was the "Ramp Walk." Around 20 participants were there for this event. With music played in background, students with their high spirit and colourful ethnic wear walked across the ramp lively. They were dressed in different ethnicity which was compatible with the theme for event, "Bring cultures together." Boys and girls equally were a part of this event and finally two students were crowned as Mr. Ethnic and Ms. Ethnic by an internal and external judge. The winners were honoured by Crown and tiara along with sash.

The event ended with a formal heartfelt vote of thanks and National anthem. At the end of the event was the DJ, where students danced intensely for a short time and enjoyed. Overall, it was fun and energetic event. Along with it, this event brought in the civic sense and social responsibility among students.
