The day kicked off with an introduction about Ethnicity followed by prayer to the lord almighty . The event venue and college was adorned with colorful decorations, reflecting the rich tapestry of cultures present. The students and staff showcased the diversity of talent and artistic expressions. Events like Ramp Walk and Reels making were conducted on the day.

The main attraction of the 'Ethnic Day' was the fashion show which was a grand success due to the large number of participation by students. It was a treat to see participants walking on the ramp displaying their lovely attire with confidence. The Judgement seats were chaired by Prof. Ronita and Prof. Lakshmi Balakrishnan, St Francis de Sales College, Bengaluru.

The Brochure of the event with the rules to be followed for the competition with other details was shared with the participants. Students were asked to form a team of maximum 15 members irrespective of the course they belong to and submit the list of participants, theme they have chosen and a unique name of the team through mail to the below mentioned id culturalsports@sfscollege.in

The teams represented a theme and it served as a guiding principle for the participants to curate their outfits and walk the ramp with confidence and style .It was a grand showcase of creativity and innovation in the world of fashion.

The music and overall ambiance were carefully curated to enhance the presentation and create an engaging experience for both the participants and the audience. The event organizers ensured a smooth flow of the show with each team getting their moment to shine on the runway.

Conclusion:

The Ethnic Day celebration was a joyous and inclusive event that celebrated the cultural heritage and diversity of the students .It provided a platform for students to express their pride in their respective ethnicities .
