Report:

Being a part of career guidance program, Oikonomika Club conducted an awareness programme on opportunities and challenges in the field of economics on 27-nov-2021 in Sardar Vallabai Patel First grade college, Sarjapura. The program began with a prayer in college Auditorium and introducing about the importance of Economics for moulding career. Our class teacher Prof. Shiva kumar S.M. gave a brief introduction about the prospects of economics studies and its application in other various fields of economics studies. The lecture was mainly focused on the creating awareness and challenges based on the challenges faced by the economy. The major challenges faced by the students during their academics was explained. It was an interactive session where few students raised the questions and feasible solutions were discussed. As a part of the programme various PG courses and ad-on courses available in SFS College, were made aware of the students, various scholarship schemes provided by the government and management was discussed. At last vote of thanks was delivered by the Principal, Prof. Ravindra, Sardar vallabai patel college, Sarjapura. The hospitality provided by the management was really impressive, students were taken for a campus visit, library visits, and the faculty members of the college were very cooperative and assured that in future to get collaborated with our institution.
