

PJ – 391

I Semester M.Sc. Examination, January/February 2019
(CBCS)
PSYCHOLOGY
Paper – 101 : Theoretical Perspective of Psychology

Time : 3 Hours

Max. Marks : 70

Instructions : 1) Answer all questions.
2) All questions carry equal marks.

1. a) Explain the historical foundations of Psychoanalytic perspective.

OR

b) Describe the neo-Freudian approach to the study of personality and motivation.

2. a) Discuss the principles involved in Operant Conditioning.

OR

b) Bringout the techniques and applications of Mowrer's personality theory.

3. a) Explain the characteristics of self-actualized individual.

OR

b) Elucidate self-theory of personality as explained by Rogers.

4. a) Examine the role of cognitive balance and cognitive dissonance in motivation.

OR

b) Describe social learning theory of Bandura. Explain its application value.

5. a) Explain the Buddhist and Jain perspectives of motivation.

OR

b) Trace out the perspectives on personality in Advaita and Upanishads.

P.T.O.