Resource People	Ms. Madhu Bhushan
	An independent activist-writer and (re)searcher, Madhu Bhushan has worked with the CIEDS Collective and Vimochana for almost three decades. She has been part of the women's movement for many years using a creative, critical and compassionate approach in her work on crisis intervention, community outreach and campaigns & advocacy. She is also on the governing boards of the Center for Vernacular Architecture and of the Alternative Law Forum. Having written for three documentaries, her first film as a writer-producer is 'Sikkidre Shikhari, Ildidre Bhikari', about the Hakki Pikki's – a nomadic tribe she has been associated with since the 80s. Ms. Mamatha CDC, Community Social Worker, Anekal Taluk Ms Minu Member (SIEDS (Society for Informal Education and Development Studies) Ms. Sharanya

Report:

Documentary films tell important, often unknown stories and bring awareness to a wider audience, and are some of the best resources for information, inspiration and entertainment. They have also become core elements and prompters of social issue campaigns. Documentaries creates a conversation to build healthier society. Documentaries are generally
